

Build Your Personal Board of Directors

Your personal board of directors is a curated team of supporters who help you grow, make better decisions, and stay on track in your career.

They're not just people who give advice - they're the ones who challenge, encourage, and advocate for you.

A strong board includes a mix of people with different perspectives and experiences.

Use the table below to build your personal Board of Directors:

Board Role	Description	My Chosen Person
Mentor	Your career guide
